IPC Designer Certification

Terms & Conditions

Registration

Course attendance is by pre-registration only. EDA Technologies reserves the right to refuse entry for delegates with non-confirmed places or for delegates who have not adhered to the agreed payment terms.

On receipt of payment, a Self-Study Pack will be ordered, and are only ordered in batches of five packs. The Self-Study Pack will include: all course materials, Steps to success with IPC Designer Certification, a copy of the terms and conditions of the course. Delegates will be responsible for making (and paying for) their accommodation and travel to the course.

We would appreciate efforts from the delegates to ensure that the payment terms are adhered to – please liaise with your purchasing/finance departments.

Course start and finish times

Registration on Day 1 is at 08:00. The 2-day workshop starts at 08:30 promptly and finishes at approximately 16:30. The exam will commence on day 3 at 09:00 finishing at approximately 11:00. While all reasonable efforts to address individual requirements will be made, EDA Technologies reserves the right to adhere to these published start and finish times irrespective of how completely the course materials have been covered. In the event where delegates are expecting to discuss specific issues not provided for in the course syllabus, we strongly advise advanced notification so that a suitable response may be prepared.

Course content

EDA Technologies has made every effort to ensure that the contents of the course promotional materials match with the content of the actual course. Due to our policy for continual improvement of the course however we reserve the right to change the contents of the course without prior notification.

Cancellation Policy

After registering for the course and receiving the Self-Study Pack, payments will not be refunded on cancellation unless return of the Self-Study Pack and written notice is given of cancellation within 14 days from placing the order.

Delegates will be expected to attend the workshop that they have registered for, it will not be possible for delegates to alter these dates or attend a subsequent workshop without incurring additional cost. Customers may substitute alternative named delegates for others in their organisation so long as notice is given prior to the start of the course. This does not affect the delegates' right to take the exam as and when a place is available, providing the examination voucher is produced at the venue.

If for any reason, a course is cancelled, delegates will be informed as soon as possible and either payments may be returned, or alternative places may be found on a subsequent course. This constitutes the limit of liability accepted by EDA Technologies.

Protection of copyright

The materials used during the course, including the audio-visuals and delegate notes are copyright EDA Technologies or IPC, and may not be reproduced in any way without express written permission. Additional materials may be purchased, please contact us for details. EDA Technologies and/or IPC will seek compensation and may embark on legal proceedings should companies be suspected of copying and re-distributing such copyrighted materials.

Warranties and liabilities

EDA Technologies makes no warranty of any kind with regard to the promotional materials or the course content, including but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability of fitness for a particular purpose. EDA Technologies shall not be liable for any incidental, special or consequential damages (including but not limited to lost profits) arising out of, or relating to, the promotional materials or the course content, even if EDA Technologies has been advised of the possibility of such damages occurring.

I hereby accept the above terms and conditions.
